

Name _____

Hello, Hungry Horses

Susanna's neighbor owns three horses. Two are black, and one is brown. Susanna thinks they are beautiful. Each day she rushes home after school and gets a handful of carrots to feed them. Susanna walks up to the fence and holds out her hands. The horses recognize their little friend and come trotting. They seem to really enjoy their afternoon Susanna snack.

1. Susanna's neighbor owns three _____.

- cats
- horses

- rabbits
- sheep

2. How many of the neighbor's horses are black?

- five
- ten

- two
- one

3. In the story, what does Susanna think of her neighbor's horses?

- They are beautiful.
- They are mean.

- They are big.
- They are scary.

4. What does Susanna feed to the horses each day after school?

- apples
- grain

- grass
- carrots

5. Where does Susanna feed the horses?

- in the backyard
- at the neighbor's fence

- in the barn
- by the pond