

Name _____

Seashell Hunting

Sally loves to go to the beach. She plays in the sand and splashes in the waves. Most of all, she enjoys hunting for seashells along the shore. She collects her treasures in a bucket and proudly shows them to her mother. Mother says they are beautiful. Sally gives her a happy kiss and runs off to find more shells.

1. Who is the main character of the story?

2. What is Sally's favorite activity at the beach?

3. Where does she put the shells she collects?

4. Who goes with Sally to the beach?

5. How does Sally feel when Mother says her shells are beautiful?