

Name _____

Broken Window Blues

Chris walked into the kitchen with a troubled look on his face. His mom noticed and asked him what was wrong. Chris looked down at the floor and shuffled his feet. Then he explained how he was practicing his swing when his baseball flew through the garage window.

“I’m really sorry, Mom,” he said sadly. “I’ll pay for it.”

His mom walked over to him and gave him a big hug.

“Thank you for being so honest,” she said. “We’ll figure it out together. Now, let me see you smile.”

1. Chris looked _____ when he walked into the kitchen.
(happy, angry, troubled)
2. His _____ asked him what was wrong.
(mom, dad, brother)
3. Chris explained that his _____ flew threw the garage window.
(basketball, baseball, bat)
4. Breaking the window made Chris feel _____.
(sad, sneaky, happy)
5. Mom gave him a big _____ and thanked him for being honest.
(cookie, smile, hug)