Fun Feeding the Koi

There is a beautiful Japanese garden that Tiffany loves to visit. As she walks the flowering paths, she crosses over little wooden bridges. The stream below is filled with the biggest and most brightly colored fish she has ever seen. On her first visit to the garden Tiffany learned that they are Japanese Imperial Carp or Koi. Some of the Koi are over a foot long. They gather beneath the bridge to catch the food pellets Tiffany drops for them. Feeding the fish is Tiffany's favorite thing about visiting the garden.
