

Name _____

Take Your Tiger for a Swim

Have you ever tried to give your cat a bath? It is very hard to do because most cats don't like getting wet. Tigers are different, though. Did you know that tigers actually like the water and are good swimmers? They jump into the water to play and to cool off. They can even swim under the water. Some people have tigers for pets and let them swim in the backyard pool. So, if you ever own a tiger be sure to take him for a swim. He will love you for it.
