

INFERENCES SERIES: TIME

This holiday is held on the third Monday of January of each year. It is held in honor of an African American man who fought for the rights of people of color and racial discrimination.

When does this happen?

9

© The Learning Patio - Dos Idiomas

INFERENCES SERIES: TIME

People cry and mourn the loss of such a loved one. Most of the people there are dressed in black. They pray together for the memory of their friend or family member.

When does this happen?

10

© The Learning Patio - Dos Idiomas