

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

MAP OF PANAMA

1) True or false. Circle the correct answer.

- The Herrera province has no coast. T F
- The Darién province limits to the north with the indigenous region of Guna Yala. T F
- The province of Bocas del Toro borders Costa Rica. T F
- The capital of Panama has the same name as the province and the country. T F

2) Complete the sentences with the cardinal points (North/South/East/West).

- The coast of Veraguas is bathed by the waters of the Caribbean Sea and to the _____ by the Pacific Ocean.
- Part of the Central mountain range is _____ of the indigenous region of Ngabe-Bugle.
- Panama has a border with two countries, to the _____ with Costa Rica and to the _____ with Colombia.
- The province of Los Santos has a coastline on the Gulf of Panama and on the Pacific Ocean.

3) The Panama Canal allows passage by boat between the Caribbean Sea and the Pacific Ocean. Divide the country into two parts. It is located between Panamá and Panamá West. Find it and color it blue.

4) The Baru Volcano is the highest point in Panama and is located north of the province of Chiriquí and south of the province of Bocas del Toro. Draw it according to the legend and the indications.

5) The Embera-Wounaan indigenous region is divided into two parts within the Darién province. Color them purple.