

Name _____

Come Back, Kite

Mrs. Johnson's class made kites yesterday. Today, they went outside at recess to fly them. It was a beautiful day, and the wind was just right. Mrs. Johnson told her students to hold on tightly to their kite strings. Suddenly, Johnny's kite string broke. The wind took his kite very high up in the air.

"Come back, kite!" he cried.

1. Which teacher had her students make kites in class?

2. When did the students fly their kites outside?

3. Why did the students need to hold on tightly to their kite strings?

4. What happened to Johnny's kite string?

5. Where did Johnny's kite go after the string broke?