

Name _____

Date _____

won

Homophones

one

Homophones are words that sound the same, but have different spellings and different meanings.

Won: past tense of the verb win, which means to be victorious or to gain something. I won the card game.

One: a single person, item or object. There is one candle on the table .

Choose the correct homophone and write it on the line.
(won - one)

1. Juan wants _____ pizza and two desserts.

2. Who _____ the Super Bowl?

3. Jessica _____ a trip to Cancun.

4. You are the _____ person I trust.

5. We are missing _____ player for the team.

6. I could have _____ the race if I had run faster.

7. What a surprise that Italy _____ the match!

8. Patty Duke was 16 years old when she _____ an Oscar award.

9. My family has gone to Miami only _____ time.

10. Should I use _____ of the boxes to store our old clothes?

