

Name _____

Date _____

whole

Homophones

hole

Homophones are words that sound the same, but have different spellings and different meanings.

Whole: all of something. David ate the whole cake.

Hole: an opening through something. There is a hole in the roof

Choose the correct homophone and write it on the line.
(whole - hole)

1. After falling down, Juan noticed a big _____ in his pants.

2. The woodpecker made a _____ in the tree.

3. I carried the _____ bag of baseballs to the game.

4. Did you tell your mother the _____ truth?

5. I have eaten healthy foods my _____ life.

6. Paul climbed through a _____ in the fence.

7. A well is a deep _____ in the ground.

8. I lost my keys because there is a _____ in my pockets.

9. My _____ body is sore from exercising too much.

10. I was nervous the _____ time I was singing.

