

Name _____

Date _____

hair

Homophones

hare

Homophones are words that sound the same, but have different spellings and different meanings.

Hair: a threadlike growth from the skin of a person or animal. My hair is wet.

Hare: an animal with long, powerful hind legs that is similar to a rabbit. The hare hopped across the road.

Choose the correct homophone and write it on the line.
(hair - hare)

1. Nancy saw the _____ hiding in the grass.

2. It's hard to catch a _____ because they are fast.

3. The tortoise and the _____ is a famous fable.

4. The _____ on my arms stood up from fear.

5. My mom has very long, black _____.

6. The _____ ate the carrots in my garden.

7. I have to cut my _____ for the wedding.

8. The musk ox has the longest _____ of any animal.

9. The rabbit is usually smaller than the _____.

10. Older people often have white _____.

