

Juana's Little Parrot

My friend, Juana, has a little parrot named Tita. Tita is green and has a yellow stain on her head.

Tita is very happy when I visit Juana. When Tita sees me, she always raises and lowers her head and raises her little leg.

I always bring her seeds. What I like most about Tita is that she knows how to say my name.

My friend's parrot knows how to speak!