

LOLA AND THANKSGIVING

Soon, it will be dinner time, and little by little, the guests are arriving. Friends and family are entering the house. They are greeted with big hugs and displays of affection. It's a very special night, and they're going to celebrate it in style. Some family members bring extra food, such as Aunt Consuelo's famous flans or her cousin Leticia's apple pie. The latter is delicious with a scoop of vanilla ice cream.

As they move into the beautifully decorated dining room, they look for their seat. To find out where they sit at the table, each guest has their name written on a small card above their plate. Next to the name, Lola has made a beautiful personalized drawing for each family member so that, once dinner is over, they can take it as a souvenir.

Dinner will begin shortly, and bit by bit, Lola's mom and her aunts show up with different dishes, spreading them all over the table. Lola's father is in charge of carrying the turkey and placing it in the center of the table so that everyone can see it. Her cousin Valentina takes photos of the whole celebration for a nice memory. The room smells great, and Lola's stomach begins to growl with hunger.

Before starting dinner, all the guests join their hands to give thanks for having such a close, generous, and good family, for the food that they do not lack and that they are going to eat today, and finally, for being able to share these moments together.

Happy Thanksgiving!
