

Name: _____

LOLA AND THANKSGIVING

Read the story twice, then answer the questions.

1. What does the word equitable mean in the story?

- a. large
- b. disproportionate
- c. equal
- d. different

2. What does it mean in the story that Lola's stomach begins to growl with hunger?

- a. She is not hungry.
- b. Her stomach is ringing.
- c. She wants to start eating.
- d. She wants to look like a lion.

3. Why does everyone help with the Thanksgiving celebration?

- a. Their parents will punish anyone who does not help.
- b. They don't have time to make dinner.
- c. If they don't help, they can't play afterwards.
- d. They are a team, and things are easier when they are done together.

4. What makes you think that Lola is an independent and self-reliant girl?

- a. Lola styles her hair by herself and is proud of it.
- b. Lola cuts the vegetables if her parents tell her to.
- c. Lola wants to eat because she's so hungry.
- d. Lola wants her cousin Valentina's pictures.

5. Where in the story is it shown that Lola has a close-knit family?

- a. Throughout the text in general, but especially in the middle and end.
- b. Only at the beginning of the story.
- c. Lola's family does not get along.
- d. Only at the end of the story.

