

Name _____

I Love My Kitty

Sometimes Kitty is a lazy cat. She sleeps on the sunny windowsill most of the day while I am at school. When I come home Kitty wants to play. I toss toys for her, and she chases after them. When she gets tired I give her a treat, and she jumps up on my lap to cuddle. I love my Kitty.

1. Why does Kitty's owner say she is sometimes a lazy cat?

2. What does Kitty want to do after school?

3. When does Kitty get her treat in the story?

4. Where does Kitty like to cuddle after she's had her treat?

5. How does the author feel about her pet cat?