

Name _____

A Bandage for Bear

Penny is very attached to her stuffed bear. He doesn't really have a name. She is happy just to call him Bear. Bear has been Penny's best friend for a long time, and he goes everywhere with her. One morning Penny was frantic and went to her mommy in tears because she couldn't find Bear anywhere. Mommy told her that Bear needed a bath so she had put him in the washer and then the dryer. Penny ran to the dryer to get Bear. When she picked him up she saw a big hole in his tummy, and she began to cry again. Mommy hugged her and assured her it would be alright. Then she stitched up Bear's wound like a real doctor and put a bandage around his middle. Penny smiled. She looked at Bear and could tell that he felt better. He was smiling too.
