

Simile

differences

- Use the words:

like or as to compare

Metaphor

differences

- Do not use the words “like” or “as” to compare.
- States that one thing is the other.

Both

similarities

- Compares two unlike things.
- Helps visualize what is being compared.
- Shows a connection.