

Name _____

Date _____

Future Perfect Tense Verbs

Future perfect tense verbs talk about actions that will be finished at some point in the future. It is formed with "will have" in front of a past tense verb. (will have come)

Write the sentences in the future perfect tense.

1. We will search for the answer to the last question.

2. Mary will clean the spot on her uniform.

3. The librarian will put the last book back on the shelf.

4. Our team will win the last game of the season.

5. We will need to go to the store.

6. The hippopotamus will cool off in the water.

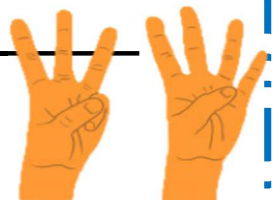

7. We will bring snacks for the party.

8. They will go to school in the morning.

9. The class will whisper while in the library.

10. First graders will learn to count to seven.

ANSWERS

Future Perfect Tense Verbs

Future perfect tense verbs talk about actions that will be finished at some point in the future. It is formed with “will have” in front of a past tense verb. (will have come)

Write the sentences in the future perfect tense.

1. We will search for the answer to the last question.

We will have searched for the answer to the last question.

2. Mary will clean the spot on her uniform.

Mary will have cleaned the spot on her uniform.

3. The librarian will put the last book back on the shelf.

The librarian will have put the last book back on the shelf.

4. Our team will win the last game of the season.

Our team will have won the last game of the season.

5. We will need to go to the store.

We will have needed to go to the store.

6. The hippopotamus will cool off in the water.

The hippopotamus will have cooled off in the water.

7. We will bring snacks for the party.

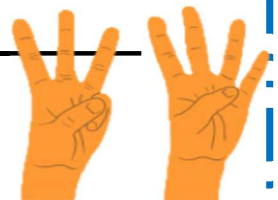

We will have brought snacks for the party.

8. They will go to school in the morning.

They will have gone to school in the morning.

9. The class will whisper while in the library.

The class will have whispered while in the library.

10. First graders will learn to count to seven.

First graders will have learned to count to seven.