

Name _____

Date _____

Past Perfect Tense

Past perfect tense verbs talk about something that happened before something else. The past tense of “have” is used in front of a past tense verb to indicate past perfect tense.

Write the sentences in the past perfect tense.

1. We all looked for the best place to find butterflies.

2. My family went camping in the mountains.

3. Jennifer wanted a chocolate pie for her birthday.

4. Our football team won in the last seconds of the game.

5. The snake watched from the tree above us.

6. Everyone ate pepperoni pizza.

7. Dad taught me how to drive.

8. Mike shoveled the snow for them.

9. The farmer planted corn this season.

10. Mom showed me the letters she wrote.

ANSWERS

Past Perfect Tense

Past perfect tense verbs talk about something that happened before something else. The past tense of “have” is used in front of a past tense verb to indicate past perfect tense.

Write the sentences in the past perfect tense.

1. We all looked for the best place to find butterflies.

We all had looked for the best place to find butterflies.

2. My family went camping in the mountains.

My family had gone camping in the mountains.

3. Jennifer wanted a chocolate pie for her birthday.

Jennifer had wanted a chocolate pie for her birthday.

4. Our football team won in the last seconds of the game.

Our football team had won in the last seconds of the game.

5. The snake watched from the tree above us.

The snake had watched from the tree above us.

6. Everyone ate pepperoni pizza.

Everyone had eaten pepperoni pizza.

7. Dad taught me how to drive.

Dad had taught me how to drive.

8. Mike shoveled the snow for them.

Mike had shoveled the snow for them.

9. The farmer planted corn this season.

The farmer had planted corn this season.

10. Mom showed me the letters she wrote.

Mom had shown me the letters she wrote.

