

Name _____

Date _____

Past Perfect Tense

Past perfect tense verbs talk about something that happened before something else. The past tense of “have” is used in front of a past tense verb to indicate past perfect tense.

Using any 7 past tense verbs from the word bank, write a sentence with it. Then, rewrite the same sentence using the past perfect tense. See the example.

studied	grabbed	wanted	bought	planted
lifted	shopped	helped	carried	thought
liked	swung	laughed	ate	made

1. We all studied hard for the test.
We all had studied hard for the test.

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

8. _____

ANSWERS WILL VARY.

Past Perfect Tense

Past perfect tense verbs talk about something that happened before something else. The past tense of “have” is used in front of a past tense verb to indicate past perfect tense.

Using any 7 past tense verbs from the word bank, write a sentence with it. Then, rewrite the same sentence using the past perfect tense. See the example.

studied	grabbed	wanted	bought	planted
lifted	shopped	helped	carried	thought
liked	swung	laughed	ate	made

1. We all studied hard for the test.
We all have studied hard for the test.

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

8. _____

ANSWERS WILL VARY.